Cal:

We will seek to protect these documents as privileged. I will be emailing defense counsel and copying you shortly regarding this dispute. In the meantime, please do not produce any communications between me and Dr. Yee until this is resolved.

Yitz and Alec,

Attached are documents responsive to request No. 14 in the subpoena. I am not aware of any privilege or immunity which pertains to these communications from Dr. Yee's perspective. However, you or your client may have an interest in protecting the communications. If so, please understand that Dr. Yee intends to produce these documents, and you should take appropriate steps to quash the subpoena or otherwise obtain protection from the Court if you deem such action necessary and appropriate to protect your interests or your client's interests in these documents.
